Our employee support petite motion picture exposes rampant, illegal action currently being perpetrated against Hollywood laborers, especially the talent portion of this important industry's mix. GettingPaid.us therein also displays recourse for workers at a highly lucrative rate. Continuing as an activist for the downtrodden during his entire life, PhilE personally and professional leads this charge to curtail Hollywood employer's mistreatment of the field in which he has labored for more than a half-century.

Trolls movie theme song, in Beyoncé's "Hold Up", J. Cole's "ATM", Bruno Mars' "Uptown Funk", Kendrick Lamar's first two Grammy Award wins for "I", Dababy's "Ashley", Skx's "Weekend Superstar" Lead, etc. With SAG Theatrical Co-Starring credits in the likes of Marvel TV's Legion opposite Dan Steven, HBO TV's Sharp Objects opposite Amy Adams and (as chronicled in his talent employment workbook) the Lead's father in the late John Singleton's Snowfall on FX TV, Phil's feature-length movie shoots include the Lifestyle Channel's The Other Wife, Ryan Stevens Moon Garden which is now in post-production and the just released Flying Cars. Phillip's leading man short film performances include David Schell's CSU-Long Beach junior undergraduate student 2017 Cannes dubbed Dysfunctional Family Thriller Darkroom, which has earned eighteen film festival accolades among sixty-seven selections on six continents; André Campbell's awards-winning Lew's Up First, the Abbott & Costello "Who's On First" stand-up comedy routine homage which aired in 2018 on more than one hundred USA Network affiliate local TV stations Nationwide in BadamiTV's African American Short Films series; Mr. Walker's preminent Homeless Man dramatic performance in Ogechi Musa's upcoming Mateo y Cliff; plus his absurdist performance in Vahan Bedlian's upcoming Loyola Marymount University School of Film and Television one-man-movie WineGame.
